

town, and shall order the county collectors, who shall collect the taxes within said corporate limits, to pay said one-half thereof to the commissioners of said town for that purpose.

JURORS, STATE'S WITNESSES, CRIER AND BAILIFFS.

124. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be incurred during the then succeeding year by the attendance of jurors, State's witnesses, crier and bailiffs at the circuit court, and shall apportion and place the same in the hands of the collectors of the several election districts for collection; and the amounts, when collected, shall be paid over to the collector of the fourth election district, to be by him disbursed as provided in the succeeding section; and any of said collectors failing to pay over to the said collector of the fourth election district one-half of the amount so levied and placed in their hands, on or before the first day of November, and one-half on or before the first day of March succeeding the levy as aforesaid, shall, for any such failure, forfeit and pay to the collector of said fourth election district the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by the said collector, in his own name, as other small debts are recovered, before a justice of the peace, together with the costs of suit; and such penalty, when recovered, shall be paid to the county commissioners.

125. It shall be the duty of such collector to attend at his office in Rockville every day during the several terms of the circuit court of said county, and to pay certificates of attendance when presented to him for payment, and upon his failure so to attend at his office in person or by deputy, and to pay such certificates when so presented by any person to whom the same have been issued, such collector shall forfeit and pay to every such party for every such failure the sum of five dollars, to be recovered by such party in his own name, as other small debts are recovered before a justice of the peace, together with the costs of suit.
